Dear Dr. Lederberg:

A few months ago Bill Kaufmann called me from California to say that his good friend, Joshua Lederberg, was moving to New York and would I please call him up, make him welcome, and look after him. I'm afraid I have been remiss in not doing so sooner.

Welcome to New York.

With the thought that we very likely have common interests, would you like to get together within the next couple of weeks? We'd be very pleased to have you come down for lunch and meet some of our management and editors. If that's not convenient, I can as easily come up to visit you.

*I shall arrange?
yes*

I'll call you in a few days.

Cordially,

Allan Wittman
